Subject objectives	The classes are similar to a proseminar; students work either on a larger whole text (work) or on smaller fragments of a text that, taken together, illustrate a literary, cultural or historical issue; thus, on the one hand, they consolidate, expand and systematise lexical and grammatical knowledge and perfect their skills of translating from Latin into Polish, and on the other hand, they learn to pose and solve research problems (of course, of a low degree of difficulty and small scope).
