Subject contents	The subject of the seminar is related to broadly understood corporate finance and controlling and depends on the selection of the seminar group. Julia Koralun-Bereźnicka The masters seminar covers a diverse range of advanced issues in the field of corporate finance, including risk management, optimisation of capital structure, and methods of corporate performance evaluation. Students utilise advanced analytical tools, including econometric methods such as regression analysis and panel models, which enable the assessment of the impact of selected micro or macroeconomic variables on the performance of businesses. The seminar also addresses the application of business valuation methods, such as DCF and comparative methods. Students analyse phenomena at both the national and international levels, examining the impact of factors such as global crises, political changes, and other market events on the financial condition of enterprises or their specific areas. A significant research area also includes the topics of mergers and acquisitions, particularly regarding the assessment of their effects on the performance of merged entities. Furthermore, the seminar covers issues related to the development of capital markets and their impact on enterprises, which enhances understanding of the complexity of financial phenomena. Ewa Majerowska The seminar will cover a broad analysis of financial markets currently operating, in particular, capital markets. The issues discussed include the characteristics of basic institutions operating on the capital market, their functions and tasks, as well as the characteristics of financial instruments used in this market. Methods of empirical analysis of rates of return on securities listed on the stock exchange, analysis of bonds operating on the market, and the idea of capital valuation and arbitrage in the conditions of stock exchange operation will be presented. The second group of issues is related to the company's activity, including the capital structure of the company, assessment of its operations, and forecasting of future results. The assessment will be based on the company's results and appropriately conducted statistical and econometric methods. The next group of issues includes the analysis of selected macroeconomic processes and elements, such as oil prices, gold prices, or crime problems, and the risks associated with them. Anna Siemionek-Lepczyńska This seminar aims to provide students with an in-depth understanding of current trends and challenges in the fields of finance. The seminar would be essential to examine contemporary issues affecting the finance sector. Example of topics: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The impact of blockchain technology on financial reporting. 2. Ethical challenges in financial management and reporting. 3. Sustainable finance. Strategies for incorporating ESG factors in investment decisions. 4. The role of artificial intelligence in financial processes. 5. Analysis of financial crisis and its effects.
