Subject contents	The classes are devoted to historical and literary analysis of selected ideas manifested in writing until the 18th century or cultural formations of that time. Class units (lecture and classes) carried out in the same semester are combined into coherent thematic cycles focusing on an issue selected by the teacher. Textual representations of the discussed ideas are described using related idea history tools (research on the history of the motif, historical themes, assumptions of thematic criticism, etc.)
Prerequisites and co-requisites	Elementary knowledge of the history and theory of literature and the ability to analyze and interpret literary works based on the basic tools of poetics. In justified cases, the instructor may waive the above-mentioned requirements. In the case of foreign students, it is necessary to know the Polish language well enough to understand the content presented during classes and actively participate in them.
