Subject objectives	The aim of the course is to prepare students for the independent development of a diploma thesis of a scientific or practical nature, involving the analysis of a selected problem in the field of tax law, finance or accounting. Students develop the ability to formulate research questions, apply appropriate analytical methods and present results that are substantively and formally correct. The course also aims to enhance critical thinking, independent research and evaluation of sources, as well as the ability to engage in creative academic discussion.
